Job Description of a Celebrity Waiter

General Description: A Volunteer who agrees to creatively serve his/her guest and participate in competition for tips."

Remember that you are actually performing the job of a real "Waiter"
*server; * a member of staff serving at table

Specific Responsibilities:

Once we receive your agreement that you will be a "Celebrity Waiter" for our event, we will send you a form to list your guests, whom we will mail invitations to.

The invitation will state that you, an elite community leader, who has volunteered your time and service to be a "Celebrity Waiter" for a gourmet dinner event. The cost for this event is $50 per guest. The invitation will also have information regarding you competing for the "The Top Tip Collecting Waiter of the Year Award," where diners are encouraged to give you tip money for various challenges which they ask you to perform throughout the event.

Your guests should be individuals that you know; friends, co-workers, other community leaders and people who you feel comfortable with participating in this type of event.

After receiving your guest list and we have mailed invitations to them, it is a good idea to keep in touch with them, reminding them of the event and the date and time.

The day of the event, you will have the option of arranging your table and decorating it in whatever theme that you would like. This is optional, as there will there will be a standard table setting and decorations available.

We will introduce all "Celebrity Waiters" and then the job begins for you to creatively serve the guest at your table.

While your guests are enjoying their meal, the MC will announce the beginning of the Waiter Challenges, when your guests may request for you to do something to earn tip money. (Cash checks and credit card charges are accepted.) Challenges can be singing, dancing, waiting on another table, telling jokes etc...
